TERMS & CONDITIONS

PROOF OF PURCHASE: Sales receipt(s) or invoice(s) itemizing the new components with the size and cost for each capacitor.

INCENTIVE OFFER: This incentive program covers components during the program year in which it is purchased and installed. Details of this program, including incentive levels, are subject to change without notice. The electric utility reserves the right to limit incentives. This incentive applies to each individual meter service.

ELIGIBLE EQUIPMENT: Equipment installed after May 1, 2021 is eligible for this incentive. Components must be new, permanently installed and operational before submitting applications.

ISSUING INCENTIVES: Components must be purchased and installed before an incentive is issued. Falsifying any information may lead to cancellation of this and future incentive applications. Please allow 45 days for delivery of incentives. Submitting an application with incomplete or missing information will be returned to applicant.

APPROVAL & VERIFICATION: The electric utility reserves the right to verify sales transactions and inspect all capacitor installation projects prior to and after installation.

TAX LIABILITY: Southern Public Power District will not be held responsible for any tax liability imposed on the customer as a result of the capacitor incentive.

DISPOSAL: The customer/contractor is responsible for the proper disposal and/or recycling of any waste generated as a result of this project.

SAFETY & ELECTRICAL CODES: The customer/contractor agrees that each installation complies with all federal, state, and local safety, electrical, and environmental codes. All products must be installed per manufacturer's instructions.

DISCLAIMER OF WARRANTIES: Southern Public Power District does not warrant the performance of any equipment or components either expressly or implicitly. Contact the supplier or contractor for details regarding equipment performance and/or warranties.

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.
